

Wildlife Guide / Naturalist (full time) – Summer 2026 (1–3 months from May onwards)

About Us

Nature Scotland is a small, ambitious eco-tourism business based on the Isle of Mull. We specialise in delivering engaging, educational, and inspiring wildlife experiences. Our tours showcase the island's incredible wildlife and habitats, while also sharing conservation messages and contributing to meaningful data collection.

The Role

As we continue to grow, we're excited to offer more paid opportunities for someone looking to gain hands-on experience in the wildlife tourism industry. You'll be joining a passionate, friendly team and working in one of the UK's most stunning natural environments.

What We're Looking For

Essential:

- A good knowledge of UK wildlife (especially birds)
- Full UK driving licence
- A genuine passion for nature and sharing it with others
- Confidence working outdoors in all weather

What You'll Be Doing

- Leading small-group wildlife tours (4–8 guests), both walking and vehicle-based
- Confidently driving a 9-seater vehicle on rural and single-track roads
- Spotting and identifying wildlife, while helping guests develop their own skills
- Sharing knowledge about Mull's wildlife and habitats in an engaging way
- Ensuring every guest has a memorable, enjoyable experience

Accommodation

Accommodation is provided in the village of Dervaig, in a shared house with another seasonal guide.

How to Apply

Please send a CV and/or cover letter to - info@naturescotland.com

\ Nature Scotland is committed to equal opportunities. We welcome applicants from all backgrounds and make recruitment decisions based on skills and experience, regardless of age, disability, gender, sexual orientation, race, religion, or other protected characteristics.*